NORTH WEST ANTI-FASCIST MONITORING NETWORK

Welcome to issue 2 of Naziwatch and after the success of the launch issue last month may we thank all those people who passed on information and advice. A special thanks to Anon from Yorkshire who was very helpful re info on the candidates, please keep up the good work.

As we have already stated the aim of the Monitoring Network is to co-ordinate information and pass on where possible, intelligence on the BNP and fascist organisations in the North West.

Within the past two weeks we have helped set up monitoring groups in Lancaster, Warrington, Preston and Stockport and will be following up several enquiries regards information on fascist activity in the region.

The North West BNP organiser Ken Henderson has been discovered working as a sales rep for a large manufacturing company

From first impressions it seems his employers at H.C. Cardiem whose head office is at Strines near Stockport seemed very cagey when pushed about Mr Hendersons background but when pressed admitted that he worked for them but was based at their offices in Mythomroyd nr Halifax. We will be enquiring to see whether the company has any customers who would not take kindly to Hendersons political affiliations.

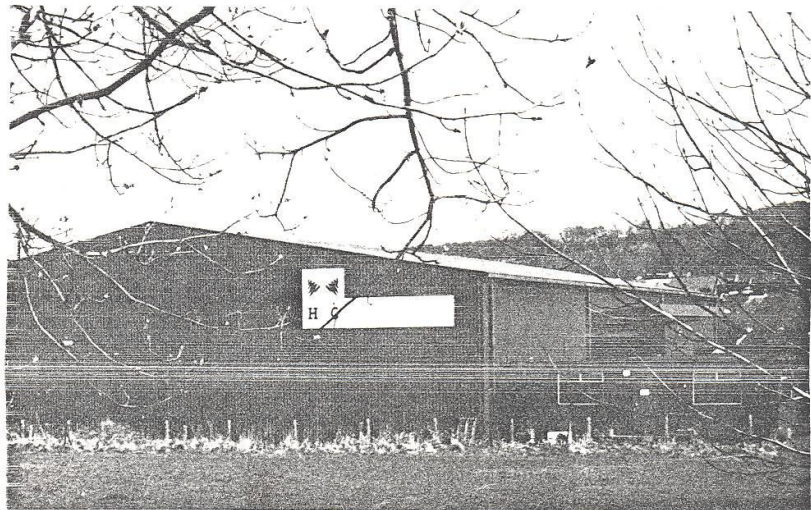

We will employ this tactic of exposing BNP members so long as they pass round hit lists with peoples names and addresses and so long as they assist Combat 18 thugs with their campaign of violence and intimidation.

In Manchester where their has always been a great anti fascist tradition the BNP have now removed the South Manchester P.O.Box from their publications. It has always stuck in Hendersons throat that the BNP have never been able to move in on Manchester without getting well and truly turned over. When the BNP attempted to set up shop last year the organiser soon realised that it was a very foolish thing to do and packed up. The opposition to this Nazi encroachment into the South of the City was tremendous and came from all quarters. However because the BNP organiser had a young family anti fascists pulled back and focussed their activities on other BNP members in Manchester. No such reciprocal policy exists with the Nazi filth that revels in harrasing peoples families.

below, the head offices of H.C. Cardiem Ltd on the outskirts of Stockport. Henderson uses company vehicles to ferry around his Nazi thug friends

This Network will expose fascists including on occasions publishing where they live and work and reserve this right in the light of recent BNP harrasmentof anti fascists. Star of the show (your words) is indeed Ken Henderson and we will be watching him very closely. If you want to be such a big shot nazi Ken then fair enough but we think about all the young lives you are screwing up, our duty is to them as well as to the victims that your thugs attack on our streets.

IRREGULARS

A number of people have written to the monitoring network asking for details on the Oldham BNP and the existence of the so called "irregulars". All we can say at this stage is that the Oldham scene is being watched very closely and local monitoring will continue.

The Candidates

TODMORDEN

Christian Jackson

With a name like that you'd expect a choir boy to pop out from behind the altar but this big mouthed ex NF Leeds United Service Crew football hooligan and Blood and Honour skinhead from Todmorden is a die hard nazi and virulently anti Asian.

Jackson is the Todmorden organiser, his branch consists of a handful of members and he's so far up Hendersons arse its hard to see why theyve got a seperate branch at all. Jackson is behind the Todmorden BNP branch P.O.Box and the address registered by the post office conflicts with the one he he's registered under for the council election. His home address is Flat 2, 10 Weir Street, Slade, Todmorden.

Jackson works as a fitter for Warman International Ltd, Halifax Road, Todmorden and is an A.U.E.W member.

Jackson has been prominent in targeting political opponents of the BNP with hate mail and was involved with Ken Henderson recently in circulating a hit list at branch meetings. Subsequently a number of anti fascists in Manchester suffered abuse. It was thought for a while that he was using the name Bolan as an alias but it is possible their may be another BNP nazi under that name. Investigations will continue into the Todmorden branch.

The BNP have used Todmorden as a stepping stone into Calderdale. It's proximity to both West Yorkshire and Rochdale BNP units has meant Jackson and his cronies can call on outside muscle to beef up the branch. Come the elections in May, the decent people of Todmorden wont touch the BNP with a barge pole. Jackson was fined heavily recently after being convicted of a public order offence in Manchester along with Colne based fascist moron Shaun Crambie.

BALDERSTONE

Janet Appleyard

Appleyard is the estranged wife of Leeds based BNP thug David Appleyard. Recently released from a lengthy prison sentence Mr Appleyard received the proverbial "Dear John" treatment just before his release as Janet dumped him for one of her many men friends. Janet had been seeking comfort from a number of BNP supporters while husband Dave was away. Mr Appleyard is reputed to be none too happy with certain people.

Ms Appleyard who is better known by her maiden name of Ward comes from Oldham and though officially down as living at 16 Count Street (Hendersons home address) it is just for the purpose of this election. Odds on she spent more than the odd night there Ex leading BNP supporter David Taylor of Fraser Street, Rochdale who fell out with his BNP chums last year was also very smitten with Janet.

above, Janet Appleyard on the march with the B.N.S.M

Ms Appleyard a Ku Klux Klan supporter has also been involved with the British National Socialist Movement and has been a regular attender at Nazi Blood and Honour gigs over the years.

Though we have no sympathy with Ms Appleyard it is reputed that the beatings she received from David Appleyard have taken their toll over the years. We always knew what a coward he was, but beating your wife up (and a fellow nazi at that) is well out of order. Word is, foul mouthed Janet who attends most major BNP events is regarded as Hendersons "Eva Braun."

SMALLBRIDGE

Ken Henderson

Henderson in his early 30's, is standing in Smallbridge where perhaps the BNP has more potential for growth than other areas of Rochdale. A couple of long established BNP supporters in the ward and members of his family have been able to stir fellow neighbours into voting Nazi in the past, however there are signs that some locals are getting a bit pissed off by big mouth Henderson and his thugs.

Henderson likes to come across as being respectable but it can be shown that Henderson is no better than a thug in a suit. He is on record threatening to "kick black ass" and at a BNP meeting in London made vitriolic attacks on the Jewish community calling them "scum of the earth."

Henderson is currently employed as a Sales Rep by a Stockport based company H.C. Cardiem Ltd, Station Road, Strines. Tel 061 449 9355. Although he operates from the Stockport head office he spends most of the time employed at Cardiems factory at Hoo Hole Mill, Cragg Road, Mythemroyd.

Last year in Burnley BNP members were transported around in vehicles belonging to Hendersons company. We urge people to get in touch with Hendersons employers and register their disgust.

NEWBOLD

Ian Baker

Little is known about Baker and at the time of going to press no further info had come forward. We were initially under the impression that his surname was Barker and thus a member of the notoriously racist family from Rochdale, deeply involved with the BNP.

We should be able to include more details on Bakers background in the next issue of Naziwatch and welcome information on this man. Again he is registered at 16 Count Street, Newbold, Rochdale.

HENDERSON SETS UP BNP HIT LIST

North West Regional Organiser Ken Henderson has been confirmed as the author of a hit list circulating BNP branches in the North West.

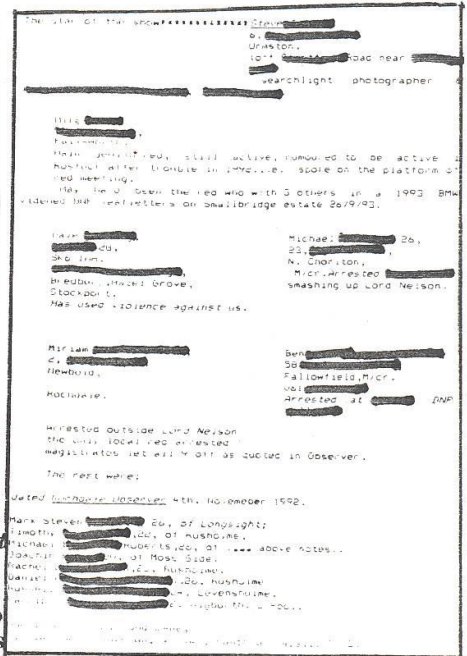

Inside sources say that Henderson was aware that information on that list could place the families of anti fascists in danger and information on at least one individual has led to harrasment of his family.

It is for this reason plus Henderson having passed on information to Combat 18 that BNP supporters will in certain cases have their home addresses published

above right, the hit list drawn up by Henderson. Names and details obliterated to protect individuals

Now ya see me now ya don't! British Nationalist, the BNP monthly paper has finally removed the South Manchester BNP P.O.Box details from its list of branch contacts.

Although the branch effectively finished trading in November 1993 the BNP has continued to publicise the P.O.Box in an attempt to keep face. Anti-fascists think it will be a long time before Henderson finds another fall guy to carry the can for him.

All we can say is dont bother Ken, you and your Nazi filth are not wanted. The BNP may exist as a bunch of sad geriatrics in Salford but as you know from past experience Ken they are not exactly the stuff white revolutions are won with!

MANCHESTER WHITES
BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY

To get the name of the BNP better known to create more interest in us and to show of the hundreds of us NF, BF and UK members that the BNP is on the move, we need publicity. Most of the publicity that the party receives maybe ugly but the point it tells people that know something about us, that we are on the move! The only message that will win us back the lost supporters from the 70's and 80's, plus new people is publicity of our activities. Many of you have been involved in national politics for many years, you will know of ways which nationalists in Manchester have got publicity in the past, even if it goes back to the days of the old B.U.P. If all that's back hard enough and remember the sorry way publicity has been won, then could try this again. We should be able to hit the local headlines and find our way into the columns of the M.E.N. more often. Your ideas on paper next month?

ASIAN

In Manchester there are literally scores of people who want to join the BNP, NF or whatever? The only problem is... that they cannot get to us, they cannot get an address. I put up about 2,000 NF stickers in Blackburn in 1987, I received 5 enquires. I did the same for the BNP in 88/89 again some 5 enquires came in. Now Manchester BNP pushed itself, we would be able to get out 2,000 stickers a month, bringing in about 5 enquires a month. After all it's said and done about Comies, 5 and other anti-British trying to infiltrate us. The fact is most of these enquire will be from good people willing to serve the cause well. We can suss out the enquires with interviews or something similar.

THE FACT IS GET THEM STICKERS UP THEN WE ARE ON THE MOVE

BURNLEY AND PENDLE

Burnley and the Pendle area have seen increased BNP activity over the past few years. They have met with little success but do have a number of key activists in the region who are attempting to put the BNP on the map.

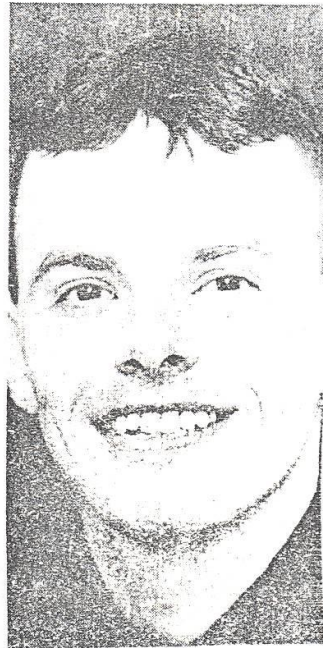

Shaun Crambie from Colne who stood as a BNP candidate in last years local elections and who has a conviction for arson and more recently for threatening behaviour is the main string puller in the area. Crambie and his side kick Mike Robinson aka Robbo have been responsible recently for threatening local anti fascists and for attacking a local publican at a town centre pub in Burnley recently.

The Red Triangle cafe has been targeted and BNP supporters are due in court on May 10th to face charges of criminal damage.

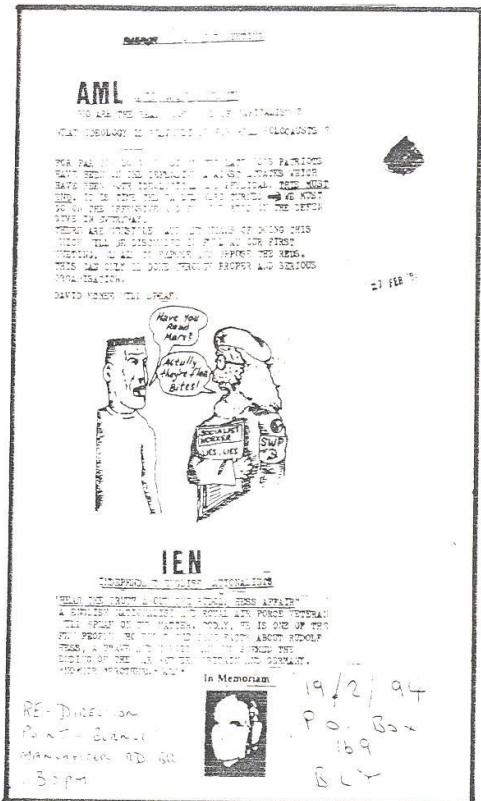

Last year the BNP attempted a national rally in the town but were prevented by a major mobilisation from anti fascist organisations.

Shortly before Derek Beackons election in the Isle of Dogs the BNP suffered a humiliating defeat in the local council elections in Burnley. One of its candidates Scott O'Sullivan received just 9 votes and his fellow nazi friend David McNee a paltry 40. Shortly before the election and within days of the routing of the BNP in Burnley, McNee left the BNP and urged the public not to vote for him. He went further by saying that the BNP were a "waste of time" and "used its supporters"

Scott Lee O'Sullivan lives at 149 Cleaver Street Burnley and stood as a candidate last year on the Stoopes estate. He is an up and coming star in the BNP but sometimes critical of national leadership who he treats with suspicion

David McNee who anti fascists believe is behind the nazi outfit Anti Marxist League aka English Nationalist Action has publically slammed the BNP but still sees a role for himself on the far right scene. His tin pot front groups make grand noises but deliver nothing more than the come to be expected drivel.

- A BRIEF LOOK

The BNP have not been able to exploit the white youth of Burnley and though they coined in a little support from some Burnley football fans the potential for the BNP is not great. Local people have campaigned against the fascists and ordinary people have been able to see them for what they are. However we will be watching the scene very closely and urge everyone to be alert.

A Naziwatch researcher overheard Robinson in Court whinging to his Solicitor about how "nobody loves him" and "the worlds out to get him" before he started dumping on his pals.

Other names to watch for are Anthony Baler, Pete Gardner, Steve Nuttall, Keith Tomlinson, Paul Smith and Peter Ewans who recently attacked an Asian taxi driver with an iron bar.

People in Burnley are showing concern in the activities of Steven Smith who runs Burnley Heritage Centre. A number of BNP activists have been seen in the company of Smith and his recent racist letters to the local press have caused a lot of suspicion as to his motives for running the centre.

His overtly nationalistic outbursts and the controversial St Georges Day event he set up have fueled uneasiness about him.

It remains to be seen whether or not Smith is just a maverick and after publicity or indeed has a political agenda he has not yet decided to publicly reveal at the moment.

NEWS IN BRIEF

BRITISH MOVEMENT GUN FANATIC FREED

A British Movement supporter convicted in April 1993 has been released from prison after serving less than a year of a 30 month sentence.

Peter Brawley an ex British and Rhodesian Army mercenary was found in possession of firearms including sub machine guns and other automatic weapons. The light sentence he received astonished anti fascists as the prosecution played down the political nature of the case for reasons that can only be speculated upon.

Brawleys defence was that he was just a gun enthusiast despite evidence that showed political connections. Brawley had in his possession B.M. pamphlets and a hit list of Black Groups and left wing councillors.

Brawley of Bank Grove, Little Hulton must feel he's the luckiest guy around and this case does nothing to deter other so called gun enthusiasts on the far right.

BNP PERVERT STALKS HULME

Austin Stonham the Blackburn BNP organiser who was exposed in Naziwatch last month for distributing bogus black rights posters in Moss Sde , Manchester, has been seen several times in neighbouring Hulme.

Stonham has been positively identified by local shopkeepers and by a local youth worker who was unfortunately unable to follow him as he had young children with him. Local anti racists have circulated Stonhams description to people in the community.

Stonham who lives at 35 Preston Old Road Blackburn is a deeply disturbed individual who anti fascists believe is coming into these parts of Manchester to gather information on the Black community.

'Hit-list' of councillors in arsenal

A RIGHT wing gun fanatic had a hit-list of Salford councillors, a court heard. Their names and addresses, along with a huge arms cache, were found at the ex-soldier's home on a Salford estate.

Peter Brawley of Bank Grove, Little Hulton near Bolton, who served with the British and Rhodesian armies, was jailed for 2 1/2 years at Bolton Crown Court for firearms offences and possessing explosive substances. When asked about the list of councillors, he refused to comment, giving only his party name and number.

The court heard that pamphlets and a hit list of councillors of the British Movement were also found in the house. The weapons included other weapons, including machine guns, and a large cache of ammunition. Brawley admitted eight counts of possessing firearms and three of having ammunition. Roger Brown, prosecuting, said he had found the list of Salford councillors in the address of a West Indian centre in Salford. A letter from Brawley concerning a survival training group and camouflage equipment was also found. An electrical device, eight batteries, a night vision device and chemicals were also found. Mr Brown said Brawley sought to use the list to target councillors in 1993.

By Ian Barrow. Police armed with warrants during a search of a Salford councilor's home on December 17. Brawley showed them three items: a machine gun, an automatic rifle and a handgun hidden under a carpet. The rest of the haul was uncovered a search of the house and outbuildings. Spent shell cases were found but there was no evidence any of the weapons had been fired, said Mr Brown. Philip Curran, defending, said Brawley had severed his connection with the British Movement in 1983. Brawley was distinguished by weapons and collected them in the same way as others may collect old cars or cameras. They were kept in his bedroom. Mr Curran said Brawley was an ex-soldier with a good length of service record and no criminal record. He asked the judge to ignore the political background as there was no evidence the weapons had ever been used. Passing sentence, Judge Gerald Clifton said he took this into consideration as well as Brawley's frankness in pleading guilty. The arms were confiscated. Brawley refused to tell police where he got them. And detailed checks failed to establish their source.

BNP to stand in council elections?

SUPPORTERS of the British National Party have issued a statement claiming they are to stand for election in either St Martin's, Sale, or the Village, Timperley.

In a letter to SAM, the party representative says "a decision on which wards to contest will be made in the next two weeks."

However, when we contacted the party headquarters in Welling, Kent, they refused to confirm that a candidate would be standing in the council elections but said the possibility could not be ruled out.

The statement reads: "Following our recent successful recruiting drive in Trafford, it is hoped that we shall field at least one candidate at the forthcoming council elections."

Tony Robson, a researcher for 'Searchlight', a magazine against Nazism, has slammed the action by the BNP as propaganda.

He said: "They are desperate for media hype so they are sniffing round and looking for support by sending Press releases to newspapers all over the country."

"They are only standing about 20 real candidates up and down the country."

The BNP has about 2,000 members nationally and about 300 who are active.

Candidates are said to be standing in Rochdale and Todmorden despite suffering a defeat in Burnley last year.

Sir Pergus Montgomery MP said: "This country is a democracy and, if the BNP want to put up a candidate, they can do."

"But I don't think they will get much support from people in our area because they will not have much time for their policies."

Councillor for St Martin's ward, Ralph Nicholas believes a BNP candidate would generate greater support for other people standing for election.

He said: "I can see no advantage for them running a campaign in this ward as racial issues are not as prominent as other areas."

BNP ELECTION STUNT HOAX

BNP supporters in South Manchester have made a desperate attempt to gather publicity by claiming to be standing candidates in Ashton-on-Mersey in the council elections in May.

This feeble claim shows just how pathetic the BNPs influence is in the South of the city. There would be more chance of seeing Mother Teresa at an Ann Summers party than the BNP putting up candidates in South Manchester, so who are they trying to fool.

A press release sent to the Sale Messenger stated there was increasing support for the BNP in the Trafford area and this had led them to consider fielding a candidate. As it turned out the BNP did not declare a candidate as we thought and so it has backfired on them.

We know their strengths and weaknesses in this part of Manchester and any party whose members spend most of their time defacing walls with slogans and with no public profile like selling papers or holding meetings points to the fact that they have no real support at all.

Just remember Manchester is a NAZI FREE city and the BNP will be opposed by every means necessary.

BNP STUDENT PRANKSTERS

A flurry of activity by the so called Nationalist Students, a BNP front group including a poster and sticking campaign has fizzled out, though they did manage recently to damage a toilet in the Metropolitan University (Poly) in frustration.

This organisation is a one man show and exists as a letterhead on a piece of paper and has absolutely no credibility whatsoever.

Brian Lane Fox, the so called chair of the group has never been heard of and it is doubtful whether his outfit will show their face at Union General meetings as they promised

It goes to show the enormous lengths these fantasists go to - a bunch of losers if ever there was.

Anti-Racism Week - a Week of Reverse Racism and Misrepresentation

An article on page two of issue eight of Nationalist Student, 18 November 1993, quite wrongly accuses the BNP of racial attacks and murders. Also a letter appeared in the Phil Post Bag in page eight of issue four by Ed Myson of the Manchester Anti-Nazi League (ANAL). This Commonwealth article obviously reaches too much intrusion for a start the BNP had nothing to do with the killing of Rev. Adams, there is no evidence what so ever to support Myson's claims and nor has the BNP ever condoned any such attack. The BNP is in no way connected with any murders. The march referred to was actually planned some considerable time in advance and actually followed the same route as an earlier non-racial march which simply proceeded through the centre of Thameston. It was purely coincidental that the BNP march went past the spot where Adams had been killed. In fact it is part of the BNP's policy to march down in Thameston.

Myson also referred to formal repatriation of all black people from Britain and called it "ethnic cleansing". This is a term again obtained, this time from watching too much anti-Soviet propaganda on the television. If Myson was to read the papers properly he would know that even the Black Labour MP Bernie Grant himself has pointed out that many immigrants are not of British "descent" (i.e. are the majority after 1971) and that they are choosing to remain in their homelands of their own accord. This confirms the BNP's view that the majority of immigrants would leave Britain anyway since it became clear that a BNP government was on the cards, although we accept that some citizens of compassion may be needed. Grant also explained the repatriation would have the double benefit of ending the immigration bill by people living in a foreign land, and would also benefit the third world as these returning could use the skills learned in Britain to free their own countries from reliance on western aid.

Furthermore it is not at all true that racial attacks in Welling rose by 110% nor is it true that four black people were murdered since the BNP Book Shop was opened. Attacks and murders on all types of people have risen on the increase throughout our country and the BNP is the only party truly dedicated towards tackling crime.

The so called Unity march, or marches, on 16 October 1993, ended in total failure due to lack of organisation, lack of leadership, lack of real purpose and through too many divisions with all the various honey bait groups vying to be the march. The march ended in violence, as would be expected of communists, increased support for the British Nationalist cause and a large number of people being hurt including black policemen who the black demonstrators called "race traitors". This was the start of the SWP, now calling itself the ANAL.

The numbers attending the march were not 30 000 nor 60 000, yet a large proportion of these people came over from France, Germany and Holland the ANAL desperately admitted. The total cost of printing here is actually less officially published yet, although I don't think that it will be high so thanks to the communist thugs. The actual cost of damage caused to the houses and streets of the Welling neighbourhood is running into hundreds of thousands of pounds!

As regards the comment about the BNP "included in the 'Holocaust'", yes of course the holocaust happened, it took place on the western front between 1914 and 1918!

Again I must correct Myson as he uses various terms such as "Nazis" and "Hitler". Fascists, even from the second Great, were the military style governments led by the Italian fascist Benito Mussolini who began his career in a Marxist, then a little cooperation between the policies of the Fascist Party and those of the BNP "Nazis" was taken from Adolf Hitler's National Socialist German Workers Party against those of little similarity between Nazism and British Nationalism, let alone the differences in Nazism, historical climate and the "right wing" (i.e. necessarily extreme) British Nationalists, and we believe in achieving our objectives through political means.

LIFES A PAYNE SAYS CLASS WAR

Salford BNP organiser and drunkard Alan Payne has attempted to hoodwink Class War.

However his plan backfired after the return address was recognised as a BNP P.O.Box.

Alan applied for a suscription to their newspaper and sent off his cheque. After pocketing Alans £4 sub for the paper Class War then told him to piss off.

Nice try Alan.

THE AIMS OF THE MONITORING NETWORK

The Monitoring Network aims at providing an information exchange between anti fascists and encourage them to contact the Network with any information of fascist activity in their area. It also aims to provide an intelligence service wherever possible to anti fascist groups and support them help in setting up local monitoring.

Security is important as the BNP/C18 are picking up the vast majority of their intelligence from the left/anti-fascist movement. To keep one step ahead of them it is vital anti-fascists are made aware of the dangers of infiltration. The network can provide anti-fascists with photographs and other information so BNP activists can be identified. It also has an extensive cuttings library and access to specialist monitoring equipment.

The Network will assist established anti-fascist /anti-racist groups without political preference and help new local groups or individuals. If you would like to get involved please contact the address shown in the newsletter.
